Product description:

Practical to use

The White Kaolin Lotus Flower Wash Cream dispenses gentle cleansing straight from the tube. White kaolin is also known as China clay. It is completely iron-free and, in light of the high clay content, has extremely fine particles. It offers particularly gentle cleansing – after all, its cleaning properties are based on a purely physical active principle: when mixed with water, white kaolin binds dirt and oil particles, making them easy to rinse out. It is particularly recommended for dry and sensitive skin, and fine hair.
