Product description:

Balance dry/combination skin during its nightly restorative cycle

Beauty sleep takes on a whole new meaning when you use Weleda Iris Hydrating Night Cream. Perfect for dry/combination skin, it strengthens the moisture-retaining ability of the skin and leaves it healthy and beautiful.

Biodynamic iris root extract brings moisture and balance to the outer layers of the skin, helping the skin look and feel healthy, soft and supple. For drier spots, organic shea butter and organic cocoa butter provide much-needed moisture. Organic chamomile flower extract helps to calm minor inflammation while organic sweet almond oil gently soothes irritation.

The perfect end to a busy day, Iris Hydrating Night Cream gives skin the restorative nourishment it needs at night for balanced, beautiful skin come morning.
