Product description:

Massage, warm and stimulate breasts ready for breast-feeding

An all-natural massage oil, using essential oils with sweet almond oil to prepare your breasts for comfortable, healthy breast-feeding.

It's the most natural thing in the world, and breast-feeding is good for your baby's health and your close bond with baby. Prepare for the experience to be the best it can be, using Nursing Oil during late pregnancy to warm and relax your breasts. Natural essential oils of marjoram, fennel and caraway are traditionally used to stimulate milk-flow, and encourage lactation, while breast massage supports healthy free milk flow, and releases tension in the breast during pregnancy.

Suitable for vegans

Benefits: Developed by experienced midwives and pharmacists. Massage with the oil cares for breasts, stimulates skin blood circulation and warms breast tissue. Regular breast massages help the whole breast-feeding process. Dermatologically tested.

Free from synthetic preservatives, fragrances, colourants, free of raw materials derived from mineral oil.

Ingredients:

Prunus Amygdalus Dulcis (Sweet Almond) Oil, Fragrance (Parfum), Limonene, Linalool*, Geraniol*.

*from natural essential oils

Tips from Gabi Köberl:

From the 38th week of pregnancy, several times a day, massage with small circular movements around the front and to the side of each breast. Avoid the nipple area and do not use immediately before feeding.
