Product description:

Therapy-related care to soothe redness in case of rosacea and couperose.

Vascular dilatation is the reason for redness. Redness may not only appear when we are ashamed, embarrassed about something or when we are spending time outside in cold winter times. Redness might also be permanent and can be abnormal, for example in the case of rosacea or couperose.

Precious vegetable oils and special active ingredients like cardiospermum calm facial skin. Purple red algae extract calms redness which is caused by vascular dilatation. Tilirosides (component of mallow) calm stressed skin and protect it against environmental influences.
