Product description:

Intensive extra care for flaky and tense scalp.

If sebum production of the scalp is affected, this often leads to dry scalp. The consequences are itchiness, flaky parts or small dry dandruff. This special skin problem might also occur as a secondary symptom for example in the case of neurodermatitis and psoriasis.

Rapid and good care are needed to protect the scalp and to fight against dry dandruff. Our Serum for dry and scaly scalp No.5 perfectly complements our proven Shampoo dry and scaly scalp No.15. A combination of different high quality plant extracts, such as cardiospermum and currant seed oil calms and regenerates the scalp. The special lacto-intensive active complex with its skin-like ingredients additionally normalises the scalp. Dry and irritated scalp can release and itchiness subsides.

Tips from Gabi Köberl:

The combination of the Shampoo No.15 and the Serum for dry scalp No.5 additionally calms the scalp after dyeing the hair!

Can be used daily. Apply the serum by means of the applicator to affected parts of the scalp (hair may be wet or dry) and massage in lightly. Do not rinse with water.
