Product description:

Luxury and love for your hair: Intensive regeneration and extremely nourishing for damaged and dry hair.

The khadi Rose Repair Ayurvedic Elixir Shampoo repairs your hair and returns its natural elasticity. The secret of this magical effect lies in the khadi Rose Repair Elixir. This Ayurvedic plant extract combines the individual effects of hand-picked Indian medicinal plants into a whole and multiplies their powers. The khadi Rose Repair Elixir is the result of gently infused herbs over an open fire in a traditional process according to ancient Ayurvedic formulas.

As soon as you start washing your hair you notice how your hair repairs from the inside out. The elixir penetrates deep into your hair to nourish and repair. You will experience soothing regeneration and a luxurious intensive treatment for hair and scalp.

As the queen of flowers, the Damascus Rose nourishes and repairs your hair. Licorice Root is rich in antioxidants and acts as an anti-aging booster. The Amla superfood fruit strengthens the roots. Shikakai provides intensive moisture and makes your hair really smooth with a healthy sheen.

Similar to your hair and scalp, the Rose Repair Ayurvedic Elixir Shampoo has a pH value of 4.0 to 5.0. The pH of your scalp is brought back into balance in a natural way. If you color your hair naturally, such as with khadi natural hair color, we recommend using the 3-step ritual to prepare for the khadi Rose Repair Elixir Shampoo. This noticeably helps to protect the intensity of the color.

Tips from Gabi Köberl:

How to get the most out of the khadi Rose Repair Elixir Shampoo:

Put the amount of shampoo appropriate for your hair length into your hands and lather with water.

Apply the silky foam to your roots over the entire scalp and work it down the length of your hair for nourishing care.

You can also leave the Rose Repair Elixir Shampoo on for a moment to let it fully unfold its repair magic.

Then thoroughly rinse the Rose Repair Elixir Shampoo with warm water.

Use the khadi Application Bottle to optimally dose the khadi Rose Repair Elixir Shampoo. This ensures that you use the right amount while lathering it up for you at the same time. Using the Application Bottle saves shampoo and water and allows the magical khadi Elixir to work optimally for your hair.

Hair cleaning in Ayurveda: What is considered a daily necessity in the Western world has a higher purpose in Ayurvedic philosophy. Hair washing is part of a holistic ceremony in which the aura and physical body are not only cleansed, but also freed from external energies. With the Ayurvedic khadi Elixir you bring your body, spirit, and soul back into harmony with every wash.
