Product description:

The Ayurvedic Powder Shampoo Sensitive Herbal Wash combines gentle cleaning and care in one. It balances your scalp and lends your hair intensive care in the Ayurvedic tradition and completely naturally. khadi's powder shampoo is Ayurveda's answer to regular hair care: natural, highly concentrated, powerful, yet soooo gentle.

The secret of the cleansing and intensively nourishing effect of the Sensitive Herbal Wash Powder Shampoo lies in the khadi trinity effect: 1. The individual effects of hand-picked Indian medicinal plants are combined into a whole thereby multiplying their powers. 2. The powder shampoo is formulated according to ancient Ayurvedic recipes. 3. Using a traditional manufacturing process, the ingredients are gently ground into an extremely fine powder.

As you apply the gentle shampoo, you can immediately feel how your scalp starts to relax, irritation is soothed, and your hair relishes in nourishing care.

Ayurveda pure – the Sensitive Herbal Wash Powder Shampoo combines a treasure chest of selected Indian medicinal herbs. Holy basil soothes and balances. Reetha cleanses gently and gives your hair extra shine in combination with Shikakai. Bhringaraj promotes healing and has a strengthening and cooling effect. Neem is highly antiseptic, reduces dandruff and soothes inflammatory itching. Hibiscus is rich in vitamins and minerals. It moisturizes your hair and gives it firmness and vitality. Fenugreek is a well-known remedy for various skin diseases. Fenugreek is antibacterial, anti-inflammatory, and strengthens the hair deep into the roots. Vitamins C, E, and D promote blood circulation in the scalp, protect against free radicals, support hair growth, and also counter hair loss. Amla provides your hair with plenty of vitamin C and antioxidants... to name just a few!

Tips from Gabi Köberl:

The Ayurvedic Powder Shampoo Sensitive Herbal Wash combines cleaning and care in one. It balances your scalp and lends your hair intensive care in the Ayurvedic tradition and completely naturally. Experience how the pleasantly soft consistency of the finely ground mask unleashes its harmonizing magic. OOOHHHMMM!

How to get the most out of the khadi Sensitive Herbal Wash Powder Shampoo:

- Put an amount appropriate for your hair length into a bowl and stir the fine powder with warm water until it has a fine texture. One pack should be enough for medium length hair.
- Wet your hair and apply the mixed Powder Shampoo onto your scalp and along the lengths of your hair with your hands for cleaning and nourishing care.
- Let the Sensitive Herbal Wash Powder Shampoo soak in for about 5 minutes. The magic begins!
- Then thoroughly rinse the Sensitive Herbal Wash Powder Shampoo with lukewarm water. Done.
