Product description:

The sumptuous „Madame Inge Body Mousse“ (rich body butter) comes in a noble glass jar. It caresses your skin, with cold pressed organic fair trade oils already while applying the body butter on your skin. Precious argan oil invigorates your skin with lots of vitamine E and supplies new freshness and tonicity. Premium cedar nut oil boosts the skin's own regeneration process. Almond and apricot oil support coarse and stressed skin to gain back elasticity and attractive smoothness. It also prevents loss of moisture.

The delicate powdery scent of lilies, lily of the valleys and jasmín, enhanced by accents of bergamot and iris round off the nurturing ritual with Madame Inge.
