Product description:

Shatavari Everyoung Elixir Body Oil: Eternal youth for your skin – from the inside out. In Ayurveda, the term Rasayana means rejuvenation. Rasa refers to a nourishing essence, and Ayana is the path through different channels. Youthfulness, or slowing the aging process, begins deep in the cells in Ayurvedic practice. Ayurveda is believed to be humanity’s earliest approach to anti-aging, and our concentrated khadi anti-aging oil benefits from those many centuries of wisdom.

Shatavari Everyoung Body Oil is a holistic rejuvenation oil – it tones, revitalizes, and ensures healthy skin elasticity. The Ayurvedic active ingredients of this special formula are shatavari, ashwagandha, and brahmi. They improve dry, mature skin, wrinkles, and even uneven pigmentation. At the same time, the delicate essential oils stimulate your spirit; application becomes a truly sensuous experience. As your soul rejuvenates, its vitality is reflected in your skin.

The secret to this rejuvenating effect is khadi Shatavari Everyoung Elixir: khadi Elixir is prepared according to ancient Ayurvedic formulas using a traditional practice that involves gently simmering hand-picked Indian medicinal herbs over an open fire. Ayurvedic plant extracts prepared in this way (medicinal decoction) combine the full potential and unique essence of the individual plants to create a harmonious whole.

In Ayurveda, shatavari and ashwagandha are considered a fountain of youth.

Brahmi and licorice root deliver lasting skin hydration.

Sandalwood and rose help your skin store that moisture.

Arjuna helps your skin counteract pigment loss.

Listen to your skin when it sings to you! Enjoy the revitalizing effect as Shatavari Everyoung Elixir Oil beads on your skin and enfolds you in its sensuous fragrance. Even as you start to massage the oil onto your body, you will feel the anti-aging effect deep in your skin cells as your senses awaken.
