Product description:

Intensely moisturising, firming, smoothing

Bakuchiol Elixir supplies facial skin with lots of moisture, valuable fatty acids and antioxidants. As a result, this vegan moisturiser is particularly good for the regeneration of very dry and sensitive skin – with 1% bakuchiol as a gentle alternative to retinol. The complex made from exquisite extracts and fair-trade organic oils makes skin firmer for a silky smooth appearance.

Bakuchiol – vegan alternative to retinol

Thanks to its gentle antioxidant effect, 1% bakuchiol replaces the active ingredient vitamin A, also known as phyto retinol. This nourishing, vegan slow aging ingredient is obtained from the ayurvedic babchi plant and helps gently but sustainably combat the signs of skin ageing. Bakuchiol Elixir stimulates collagen production and has an immediate moisturising effect, penetrating deep into the skin for an enhanced and smoother appearance.

White hibiscus and argan oil

The relaxing effect of white hibiscus helps minimise the first signs of wrinkles and lines. This produces a firmer complexion entirely through plant-based ingredients for a natural lifting effect. In addition, high-quality organic fair-trade argan oil and baobab extract offer powerful antioxidant substances and promote cell regeneration.

Fair-trade organic aloe vera is complemented by vegan hyaluronic acid for enhanced moisture levels in dry facial areas. Consequently, the Bakuchiol Elixir restores elasticity and freshness to the skin.
